Producer

Gargalo

The vineyards of Gargalo are located in the most continental area of Galicia and are part of the Duero basin. This region not only stands out for its scenic beauty, but also offers perfect conditions for winegrowing with its varied terroir and climate influenced by the Atlantic. The appellation D.O. Monterrei was only founded in 1993, although the history of wine production here goes back more than 2,000 years. Bodega Gargalo is located at the foot of the Castillo de Monterrei and has been producing quality wines that reflect the character of Galicia since 1982: Respect for tradition and the environment, a spirit of innovation and the pursuit of excellence.
