

Baroncelli Selezione Speciale, 2021

Sangiovese Merlot Umbria IGP

Country of origin
Italy

Grapes
Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Sangiovese

Serving temperature
16 - 18°C

Allergen notice
Contains sulphites

Alcohol content
14.5%

Character

Powerful notes of ripe wild berries dominate the bouquet of this garnet-red, fruity and well-balanced wine, with in addition a peppery dimension and a hint of vegetal notes. Appealing tannins and a soft, full body enchant the palate, where a touch of liquorice joins the berry and stone fruit flavours.

Wine type

Sweeter wines

Balanced wines

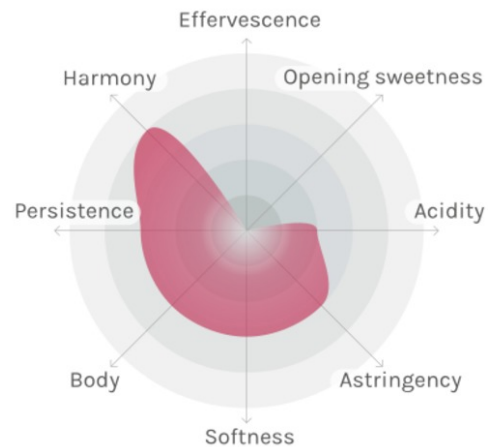

Lingering wines

Producer

Baroncelli

Baroncelli Selezione D'Italia embodies authentic wine craftsmanship from the finest wine regions of southern Italy - and with the "Selezione Speciale" line, it extends even further. Whether for everyday enjoyment or special occasions, our wines provide the perfect accompaniment. Single-varietal and meticulously crafted, they combine traditional winemaking expertise with cutting-edge technology to ensure consistent quality and full, rich flavor.

Foodpairing

Grilled or fried veal