Character

A balanced, rich, long-lasting and very harmonious red wine. Its powerful bouquet is dominated by the typical prune and dark berry (blueberry and blackberry) aromas, rounded off by delicate vanilla notes. On the palate, a pleasing sweetness is apparent, together with a mellow and full-bodied structure, crowned by a long finish.

Producer

Cantina Valpantena

The Cantina Sociale della Valpantena lies in the heart of Valpantena, northwest of Verona. The cooperative, founded in 1958, mainly grows the indigenous varieties of Corvina and Rondinella here in the valley with verified designation of origin in the Verona hills. Commitment and professional care are part of all production phases, whereby tradition and technical innovation become one. The excellent quality of the wines proves that the grapes and olives of the 300 member farms of the Cantina Sociale Valpantena are optimally processed.
