

Belle Vallée, 2022

Rosé de Vétroz AOC Valais

Country of origin
Switzerland

Grapes
Gamay, Pinot Noir

Serving temperature
10 - 12°C

Allergen notice
Contains sulphites

Alcohol content
13%

Character

The aromas in this fine salmon-pink wine are characterised by gooseberry, raspberry, cherry and a touch of peach. It is enjoyably lively, fruity and well balanced, with a very soft, harmonious structure complemented by a pleasing finish.

Wine type

Sweeter wines

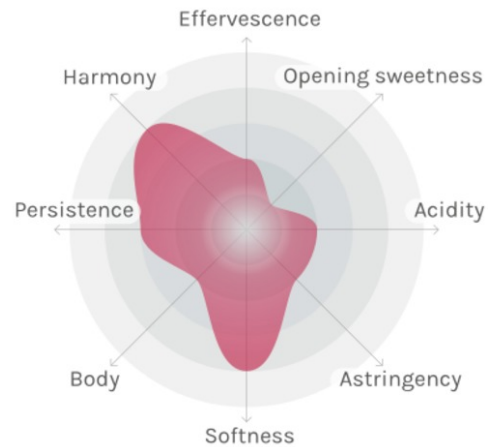

Balanced wines

Producer

Belle Vallée in Partnerschaft mit Jean-René Germanier

Valais, the cradle of Swiss viticulture, impresses with its terroir and unique sun-drenched climate. The vines flourish in this perfect position on the terraces. For Belle Vallée, renowned winegrower Jean-René Germanier only uses grape varieties that prosper here. The experienced specialist with strong roots in the region knows the characteristics of each variety. He is committed to the terroir and refines the indigenous grapes into unique wines full of character.

Foodpairing

