Mavrio

The wines of Mavrio are distinctive wines made from pure Negroamaro grapes! They grow in Apulia in Italy's warm south and mature for several months in barrique. When fully developed in this way, they reveal a dark sweetness and sun-drenched aroma. Within a short time, Mavrio has become a favourite among Swiss wine lovers, while wine critic Luca Maroni has awarded high ratings to these excellent southern Italian wines on several occasions.

Foodpairing

Veal in a light sauce
