

Rocche'n Roll by RDM, 2018

Barolo DOCG

Country of origin
Italy

Grapes
Nebbiolo

Serving temperature
16 - 18°C

Allergen notice
Contains sulphites

Alcohol content
14%

Character

This fresh, rich, brick-red wine has impressive roasted aromas of coffee and chocolate, alongside notes of pepper and clove with some dried fruit and a hint of berries. Its intense aromas are borne on a very soft, full and harmonious body, complemented by a pleasing initial sweetness and rounded off by a sustained and lingering finish.

Wine type

Lingering wines

Full-bodied wines

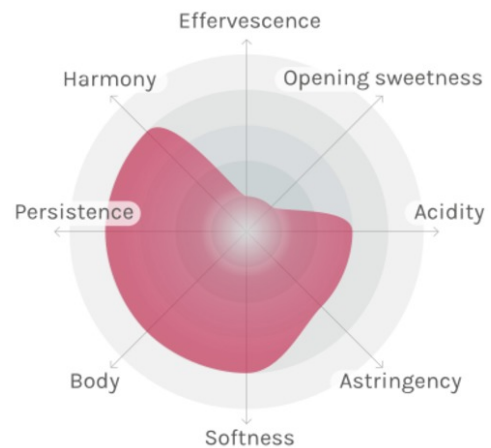

Balanced wines

Producer

Rocche'n Roll by RDM

Are you ready for Rocche'n Roll? Then get ready for something new from the pioneer of the Langhe. With Rocche'n Roll, veteran winemaker Rodolfo Migliorini has brought the lions of the Rocche dei Manzoni winery to life. Inspired by a passion for music, he enters the big stage of pleasure with a new, rocking Piedmont Collection. The spotlight is on modern, fruity wines that break with Piedmont's long tradition. Both in terms of grape varieties and production methods.

Foodpairing

Pasta served with meat

Beef in a dark sauce, also grilled or fried

Veal in a dark sauce

Game in a dark sauce, also grilled or fried